

I do not want captioning on TV to be of inferior quality because that will deny me equal access under the law. The FCC should not allow the quality of full access to television to be less than satisfactory.